Title New Map of the City of Hartford, Connecticut

Date 1925

Primary Maker Elihu Geer Sons

Medium Lithography; black printer's ink on wove paper

Description Map of Hartford, Connecticut, oriented east-west on the sheet with the Connecticut River at the bottom. The city is divided into 15 wards. Streets are labeled and parks, hospitals, cemeteries, and colleges are shown. An unnamed railroad line (probably the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad) runs through town. The Park River is shown. Broken solid lines run along several streets but are not explained on the map. A street index is printed to the left of and below the map. On the back is a map of West Hartford, Connecticut, also oriented east-west on the sheet. Roads are labeled and the American School for the Deaf, Troop B Armory, Elizabeth Park, St. Mary's Home, and the locations of schools are shown. In the lower left corner are four parallel
