Description An horse-drawn hearse is parked on the side of the street in front of the Dillon Funeral Home in Hartford. A flower-bedecked coffin is visible in the back of the carriage. The horse-drawn vehicle is being driven by a man holding reins, seated at its front. A sign on the side of the hearse reads "Dillon." Behind the horses, the funeral home entrance is visible; the sign "100 DILLON 100" appears above it. A picket fence and an ivy-covered building are in the right background.
