Title Group of Boys at La Jeunesse Camp

Date about 1918

Primary Maker Horace Bushnell Cheney Sr.

Medium Photography; gelatin silver emulsion on plastic

Description A large group of boys sits in two rows in front of a shingled cabin.

One row sits on the edge of the cabin's porch and the other row sits on the ground in front of them, which is a packed dirt clearing. The boys all wear collared shirts with ties. There are three tents standing to the left of the cabin.

One of the boys in the photograph is Roger Williams Cheney. The place depicted is La Jeunesse Camp, in Saranac Lake, New York.
