Title Train Wreck, Tariffville, Connecticut: Railroad Cars Overturned off of Railroad Bridge into Water

Date 1878

Primary Maker Daniel S. Camp

Medium Photography; albumen prints on paper on cardboard mount

Description Several shattered railroad cars lie on the banks of a river. One car, at the left, hangs off the end of a damaged railroad bridge. Spectators, mostly men in dark overcoats, stand in the foreground and climb on debris. Additional spectators on the far bank of the river include some women. Leafless trees and evergreen trees are in the background.
