

Basic Detail Report

Title Pageant of the Peoples.

Date 1920

Primary Maker William G. Dudley

Medium Photography; negative

Description Group of about twenty people, mostly women, stand in front of, or on, a staircase. They are dressed in long dresses and some wear ethnic clothing.

The woman to the left front of the group holds a banner with a likeness of Abraham Lincoln that reads "Pageant of the Peoples." A woman to the right front of the group holds a banner that reads "The Spiritual Interchange." A menorah and an American flag are held by others.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 7 1/2 x 9 7/16in. (19 x 24cm)