

Basic Detail Report

Title First Meeting House built in Connecticut.

Date probably 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; ink on paper

Description Small single-story building with a tall pyramidal roof. According to Barber's text it "is believed to be a correct representation of the First house ever in Connecticut for Christian worship. The drawing was obtained from a gentleman now deceased, who devoted considerable time and attention to antiquarian research in Hartford."

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 2 3/4 x 3 9/16in. (7 x 9cm)