

Basic Detail Report

Title South Eastern view of Danbury, Con.

Date probably 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; ink on paper

Description A man and a boy stand beside the Norwalk Road looking out over the borough of Danbury. To the far left the Baptist Church can be found on Deer Hill. The Episcopal Church is in the center of the image; the spire to the right of it belongs to the Universalist Church followed by that of the courthouse. The steeple of the Congregational Church is on the far right hand side of the composition. Fences divide the fields in the foreground.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 3 9/16 x 5 1/2in. (9 x 14cm)