

Basic Detail Report

Title Smithville (Derby)

Date probably 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; ink on paper

Description View of Birmingham, earlier called Smithville, in Derby as seen from the shore at Derby landing. To the extreme left one can see a portion of the Leavenworth Bridge over the Housatonic River. Near the center on a hill over the copper factories is the home of Sheldon Smith. Buildings are clustered along the hillside.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 3 1/8 x 4 5/16in. (8 x 11cm)