

Basic Detail Report

Title Thomas Nangle and daughter, Pinney Street, Ellington.

Date 1880-1890

Primary Maker Northern Survey Company

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description A man wearing a cap and a young girl stand in front of a large two-story house with an elaborate sawn cornice. A tobacco barn is in the left background and a wagon drawn by two horses is in front of it. A birdhouse, probably a martin house, is on a tall pole behind the man and girl.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 6 5/16 x 8 11/16in. (16 x 22cm)