

Basic Detail Report

Title Albert Terry house, probably Enfield.

Date 1880-1890

Primary Maker Northern Survey Company

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Man seated in open horse-drawn carriage. Seated woman holding a cat (?) Elderly woman standing, hand on hip. Both women wear aprons. The house is a large, center-chimney Colonial, painted in contrasting colors. There is a small addition at the back and a large hemlock tree in front. Notes on back:

"Albert Terry" "Probably E. of River."

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 6 5/16 x 8 11/16in. (16 x 22cm)