

Basic Detail Report

Title Freehand drawing class, Hillyer Institute, Y.M.C.A., Hartford, ca.

1910.

Date about 1910

Primary Maker H. J. Rodgers

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper

Description In an interior, seven young men sit copying plaster casts. Two of them wear eyeshades, one wears eyeglasses, two have mustaches. Their drawings are supported on easels. Framed oil paintings and prints hang on the walls. A cluster of three electric light bulbs hangs from exposed wires in the center of the room. A potted plant is in the right background.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 7 7/8 x 9 13/16in. (20 x 25cm)