

Basic Detail Report

Title J. J. Jennings house, Windham.

Date 1880-1890

Primary Maker Northern Survey Company

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Two women and girl wearing hats standing behind picket fence at right side of house. One of the women is wearing an apron and appears to be an African-American. Baby carriage with umbrella is in front of porch near girl.

House behind women is two-story clapboard Georgian style with louvered shutters, dentil molding and entry porches at front and right side which have fluted columns. Side porch has rocking chair and vine growing up left column.

Four large trees in front of house and hitching post. Three bay carriage house and barn in right background with lattice panel. Far left is another house.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 6 5/16 x 8 11/16in. (16 x 22cm)