

Basic Detail Report

Title Antique Aircraft Museum, Bradley Field

Date 1971

Primary Maker Richard Welling

Medium Drawing; black and gray markers on paper

Description Drawing of airplanes at the aircraft museum (subsequently the New England Air Museum) at Bradley Field (subsequently Bradley International Airport) in Windsor Locks, Connecticut. A U.S. Air Force airplane is completely visible, with the tail of another one shown on the right. The name Sikorsky appears on what might be a third aircraft on the far right.

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions Sheet (height x width): 13 3/4 x 21 1/2in. (34.9 x 54.6cm)