Description Views of Asylum Street in downtown Hartford, Connecticut include automobile and pedestrian traffic. A policeman with a "Stop" sign directs traffic in one photograph, in which a corner of Bushnell Park is visible. Some photographs include trucks and trolleys; one photograph also includes a bus and a railroad train on the Asylum Street overpass. Portions of the street are lined with commercial buildings, some with awnings and electric signs. A rooftop billboard advertises Webb's shoe repair "Shoes Rebuilt / Not Just Cobbled." Other signs read "DRINK MILK" "SHINE" "THE / LOBSTER" "CHARTER
