

Basic Detail Report

Title Horse-drawn omnibus, corner of State and Main Streets, Hartford

Date about 1886

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper

Description View from the west side of Main Street towards State Street.

Pedestrians in the foreground include women and men wearing hats. A horse-drawn omnibus is on the tracks in the middle of the street. Several carriages and carts drawn by horses are also in the street. Commercial buildings lining State Street bear signs that read: "The Hartford Printing Co. / Home of Elihu Geer's Sons City Directory" "Steam Job & Card Printer" "Kashman's Furnishing House" "A. J. Glazier Real Estate" "Crane, Dentist" "Byrne, taylor" "J.S. Schott, cigars" "H.P. Hitchcock" "Deming & Gundlach" "T.A. Honiss."

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 3 15/16 x 5 1/2in. (10 x 14cm)