Title Trolley and horse cabs on Central Row, Hartford

Date about 1900

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper

Description Trolley car no. 235 on track in middle of street. A sign on the trolley reads "West Hartford." A man in a suit and a straw hat (possibly a dispatcher) holds a striped pole at the left of the trolley. A boy in knickers stands behind him. To their left is a long row of horse-drawn carriages, probably cabs for hire. Behind them is the Hartford Post Office building. The American Hotel is in the background. Commercial buildings line the right side of the street. Signs read:
