Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Industrial complex of masonry factory buildings. Five-story building on left with tower is probably part of the Stone Mill. Two smokestacks at right may be part of what is probably the Belding Silk Mill. Center of image is a cupola and several buildings have rooftop skylights and metal chimney shafts. Street in front has utility poles, picket fence and bridge going over the Hockanum River. Right side of street has decorative iron fence connected to a picket fence. At left in background are groups of houses.
