

Basic Detail Report

Title Danbury Shirt Manufactory and Shirt Laundry, Danbury

Date about 1880

Primary Maker Edward D. Ritton

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Two clapboard buildings with three chimneys and wood shutters on dirt city street with board sidewalk. Horse drawn wagon at right. Building on right has sign "Danbury Shirt Manufactory" and building on left with brick ell reads "Shirt Laundry". Women look from windows of Laundry, a man sits in first floor window and man in top hat stands at door. Advertising on plank fence in front of building includes "Deusen's Drug Store", "New Store..Dry Goods", "Mrs Allen's Hair Restorer", "New York Daily".

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 7 7/8 x 9 7/16in. (20 x 24cm)