

Basic Detail Report

Title Distant view of Dunham Mills, Poquonock (Windsor)

Date 1878

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photography; gelatin silve print on paper

Description Large stone and brick industrial buildings seen across mill pond on the Farmington River. The dam is at the left. One of the buildings has a smokestack, dormers and a square tower. The right building has a mansard roof.

An iron exterior staircase runs down the side of the left building. Inscribed on back: "Dunham Mills / First Worsted Mill / in U.S. / Poquonock, Conn., town of Windsor." "Alfred Dieu came from France. All French Machinery."

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 5 1/8 x 7 1/16in. (13 x 18cm)