

Basic Detail Report

Title The Unrivalled Express Rider

Date 1857-1860

Primary Maker John H. Bufford

Medium Lithography; black and tan printer's ink on wove paper

Description A man wearing an overcoat, a scarf, and a hat rides a horse through the snow. A bleak winter landscape with a few leafless trees is in the background with a railroad train at the far right. A road sign behind the rider reads "50 MILES TO / HARTFORD" "10 MILES TO / WORCESTER." At the far left, three men stand outside a barn and a tavern with a hanging tavern sign. They hold a fresh horse.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 9 5/8 x 14 15/16in. (24.4 x 37.9cm) Sheet (height x width): 10 7/8 x 16 3/16in. (27.6 x 41.1cm)