

Basic Detail Report

Title Charter Oak Life Insurance Company: first story and beginning of second story under construction, corner of Main Street and Atheneum Street, Hartford, August 27, 1869

Date 1869

Primary Maker Fred Jones

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Workmen, including bricklayers, pose on the second story of a building under construction. Some wear overalls. Several cranes are on the second story. Ladders and scaffolding are also visible. Building materials, including blocks of stone, bricks and lumber, are piled around the site. The brick wall of the adjoining building is at the left. The first floor design incorporates Ionic columns and pilasters.

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 7 1/2 x 9 7/16in. (19 x 24cm)