

Basic Detail Report

Title New trolley tracks being laid, Main Street, Hartford, September 18, 1902

Date 1902

Primary Maker Elmer M. White

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper

Description View looking south on Main Street from near the corner of Pleasant Street. New trolley tracks are under construction. Several men are working on the tracks. A trolley is in the background. Pedestrians are on the sidewalks. A man on a bicycle is on the street. Some commercial buildings have signs that read: "Langdon & Daley," "Reid / Tailor." Utility poles line the street. The steeple in the background is on the Fourth Congregational Church.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 5 1/8 x 7 1/16in. (13 x 18cm)