

Basic Detail Report

Title Bricklayers, corner of Main and Perkins Streets, Meriden

Date about 1885

Primary Maker Northern Survey Company

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Six men pose beside a partially completed brick wall. Most have mustaches. Most wear hats. One wears a cap. Some wear overalls. One man wears a plaid shirt. One man smokes a pipe. Two hold hods. One holds a trowel. A large upright tank with pipes and valves attached, probably a boiler, is behind the wall. A barrel is visible through the doorway. A frame and brick building is in the background.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 6 11/16 x 8 11/16in. (17 x 22cm)