

Basic Detail Report

Title River House, 76 Ferry Street, Hartford

Date 1891

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Four story brick hotel building with porches on the second and third floors. The roof is supported by brackets and has a cupola and two chimneys on it. A wooden exterior staircase leads to the second floor. Men and women stand on the porches. A woman on the third floor holds a bucket and a broom. A sign at the left reads "River House / 76 / Bar Room." A sign on the lower level reads: "Hartford Canoe Club." The Connecticut River is at the right but not visible.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 4 5/16 x 5 1/2in. (11 x 14cm)