

Basic Detail Report

Title Concrete Arch Bridge for the Town of West Hartford, June 1901

Date 1901

Primary Maker H. O. Warner

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper

Description Double-arched bridge across a broad, shallow stream, probably Trout Brook. Iron railings are on both sides of the roadway as it crosses the bridge. A stone retaining wall is on the right and an earth embankment is on the left of the bridge.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 7 7/8 x 9 13/16in. (20 x 25cm)