

Basic Detail Report

Title Fire Engine Drawn by Three Horses, Hartford

Date about 1900

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper

Description A fireman in uniform drives a team of three horses drawing a steam-powered pumper. Three additional men in uniform stand nearby. All wear caps and badges. The driver wears leather [?] gloves. A plaque on the boiler reads: "H. F.D." A smokestack and the corner of an industrial building are in the left background behind a board fence. A three-story brick multiple-family residence is on the right behind an iron fence. This triple-decker has porches on all three floors and louvered shutters. There appears to be horse manure in the dirt road in the foreground.

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 8 1/4 x 9 13/16in. (21 x 25cm)