

Basic Detail Report

Title Clark, Mary and Walter Huntington photographs

Date about 1910-1920

Primary Maker Huntington Chester Clark

Medium photographic print on paper

Description .1 black and white photograph of Mary and Walter Huntington seated on the ground with their legs crossed, wearing feather headdresses and fringed "Indian" play clothes. They are looking at each other. .2 black and white photograph of Clark Huntington coming out from a tent, his arms spread, wearing a feathered headdress and fringed "Indian" play clothes. .3 black and white photographh of Clark Huntington stading beside a bush or tree wearing a feathered headdress and fringed "Indian" play clothes. .4 Sepia-toned studio portrait of Clark Huntington wearing a lace trimmed dress, seated in a chair, holding a teddy bear. Probably taken in 1906-1907. .5 Sepia-toned studio portrait of Clark, Mary and Walter Huntington, all dressed in white outfits. The boys are still wearing dresses although Walter now has bloomer underneath. Both boys are also wearing patent leather shoes.