

Basic Detail Report

Title Portrait of Eunice Goodwin Batterson

Date 1901

Medium silverpoint drawing on paper

Description Drawing of the head and neck of a woman with hair parted in the middle, wearing glasses and a high collar. Eunice Goodwin Batterson was the wife of James G. Batterson of Hartford, Conn., who was owner of the New

Basic Detail Report

England Granite Works and founder of Travelers Insurance Co. Walter Griffin, the artist, had a studio in Hartford in 1897 before joining the art colony in Old Lyme.

In a simple gold frame with no mat.

Dimensions Frame: (Height) 15 × (Width) 12 1/4 × (Depth) 5/8in. (38.1 × 31.1 × 1.6cm) Sheet as visible within frame: (Height) 13 5/8 × (Width) 10 5/8in. (34.6 × 27cm)