

Basic Detail Report

Title Pill Case

Primary Maker Dr. Robert Usher

Medium leather

Description Pill case designed for use in a saddlebag. There are spaces for nine pill containers. It has six, glass pill containers remaining, five labeled. Bottles labeled as Triosteum Perfoliatum (Feverwort), Sepiae Succus, Kali Nitricum (Nitrate of Potassium), Silicea (Silica Dioxide), and Lycopodium (Clubmoss). This was used by Dr. Robert Usher of Westchester. Has a portion of a belt to be used to attach to the saddlebag.

Dimensions Component (height x diameter of glass bottles):  $2 \frac{3}{4} \times 1 \frac{1}{2}$  in. ( $7 \times 1.3$  cm) Primary Dimensions (overall length x width of closed case):  $11 \frac{3}{4} \times 4 \frac{1}{2}$  in. ( $29.8 \times 11.4$  cm)