

Basic Detail Report

Title Fabric sample wallet

Date late 19th century

Primary Maker Sanford Clayton

Medium Cardboard, paper, textile

Description Blue cardboard "wallet" with a stamped image inside the front flap of a female statue on a pedestal surrounded by bales of wool and a number of sheep, with a ship in the background. A shield on the pedestal is inscribed "CR / 621". Nine flaps fold up inside the cover; the first five have glue residue; the last three have small rectangular pieces of woolen textile in shades of brown, purple and red. The final flap is empty. Each fold out flap is framed with a blue border with shells in the corners, medallions on the bottom and top, and ovals along the sides, each with a number written in pen. The outside cover has been written on with the name "Sanford H. Clayton (?) / Woodbury, Ct." On the top flap is inscribed "621 / 56 % 5/8 bolt [illegible]."

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (closed height x width): 3 9/16 × 7in. (9 × 17.8 cm) Primary Dimensions (open height x width): 7 × 33in. (17.8 × 83.8cm)