

Basic Detail Report

Title Photographs of the Park family

Date 1890-1949

Primary Maker Jane E. Park

Medium Photography; albumen and salt prints on paper and board

Description .13 Bust length portrait of a woman wearing a buttoned-up bodice with lace peeking from the collar. At the top of the buttons is a brooch, to which is attached a watch fob. She is looking to her left. Identified as Jane E. Wells

Park, wife of Francis Park. .14 Cabinet card with a bust length portrait of a middle-aged woman, her hair swept up into a bun at the top her head. She wears a white blouse with a straight decorative pin holding the collar to the placket. The collar is trimmed with lace. She also wears a choker with a pendants, and something pinned to her left breast. She is looking to her right.

She is probably Ella Park Stimson, wife of Baxter S. Stimson. .15 Bust length portrait of a man with a trim beard and bushy mustache, his hair combed back, and wearing a striped cravat. He is looking to his left. Identified as Baxter Stimson, husband of Ella Park Stimson. .16 Cabinet card with a bust length portrait of a man with white or grey hair, wire rimmed glasses, and a suit and tie.

He is looking directly at the camera but his body is turned to the right. He is identified as Francis Stimson, son of Baxter and Ella Park Stimson. .7 Bust length portrait of a man with white or silver hair, a trim beard and mustache, in a suit coat, vest and with a cravat. He is looking slightly to his right. He is identified as Francis Park, who died in 1904. .18 Bust length portrait of a woman with light colored hair, wearing a high collared dress with lace decorating the collar and bodice. She is looking directly at the camera but her body is turned to the left.

Basic Detail Report

The image has been trimmed into an oval.