

Basic Detail Report

Title Connecticut State Building

Date about 1926

Primary Maker Whitehead and Hoag Company

Medium bronze

Description A bronze souvenir medal from the Sesqui-Centennial held in Philadelphia in 1926. The subject of the medal is Connecticut. The front side of the medal has a relief image of the Connecticut State Building. The reverse side has a relief image of a statue of Nathan Hale on the left and a relief image of the Connecticut state seal in the upper right. Next to the statue and beneath the seal is a quote from Nathan Hale.

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (diameter): 1 1/2in. (3.8cm)