

Basic Detail Report

Title Hartford Circus Fire: Charred Remains

Date July 6, 1944

Primary Maker Helen Tobacco

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper

Description A group of men stand looking at charred remains. Some of the men are wearing t-shirts, others are wearing suits and hats, and there are also firemen in uniforms and fire hats. A small part of the charred spectator stands is visible in the background.