

Basic Detail Report

Title Postcards of Cerignola, Italy

Date 1944-1945

Description Postcards featuring views of Cerignola, Italy, where Elinor Righter was stationed for 18 months from 1944-1945 with the American Red Cross. (.133): Black and white postcard, view of The Francesco Saverio Mercadante Theater, Cerignola, Italy. (.134): Black and white postcard, view of Coroso Garibaldi, a main street in Cerignola, Italy. (.135): Black and white postcard, view of Coroso Garibaldi, a main street in Cerignola, Italy. (.136): Black and white postcard, view of Coroso Garibaldi, a main street in Cerignola, Italy. (.137): Sepia-toned postcard, view of The Cathedral of Saint Peter the Apostle, also known as Duomo Tonti, Cerignola, Italy. (.138): Black and white postcard, view of The Church of the Beata Vergine del Monte Carmelo, also known as Chiesa Del Carmine, in Cerignola, Italy. (.139): Black and white postcard, view of the municipal plaza, Cerignola, Italy. (.140): Sepia-toned postcard, view of the Piano

Basic Detail Report

delle Fosse del Grano (historic grain pits), and the Pavoncelli Palace, Cerignola, Italy.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions:  $3\frac{1}{2} \times 5\frac{1}{2}$ in. ( $8.9 \times 14$ cm)