

Basic Detail Report

Title ID Badge: Elizabeth Nolan

Date 1944-1952

Primary Maker Elizabeth Ann Nolan

Medium Metal, plastic

Description Identification badge for Elizabeth Nolan at U.S. Naval Air Station

Alameda, used when she served with the WAVES during World War II. The ID badge is circular in shape and constructed of metal and plastic. The front face of the badge has metal edging reading "U. S. NAVAL AIR STATION ALAMEDA" surrounding a plastic window with a square photograph of Nolan visible below the plastic. The photograph is a bust view of Nolan. She is standing in front of a height chart to aid in identification. A bar on the top of the photograph reads, “NAS ALAMEDA,” and one on the bottom reads, “USN 11796.” The rear face of the badge has a safety-pin to attach the badge.

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (diameter): 2in. (5.1cm)