and crown structure. These twill woven straps have eyelets and ties to account for proper fit. There is a brown leather portion of the interior hatband at the center front. The interior of the helmet has a yellow and black sticker reading, “Property of the U. S. Gov’t / O.C.D HTFD” The underside of the helmet brim features a metal bracket on both the proper left and right sides, the woven adjustable chin strap is attached to these brackets, the chin strap features a snap closure for removal. The black molded plastic Scotty’s Toys brand whistle (.2) is attached to the helmet’s chin strap with a metal chain. The whistle has a small white ball in the main chamber to create the tone when blown.
