Bio

After receiving classical training from a young age, Dan discovered traditional fiddle music in Manchester, England, after he left home. Dan graduated with a BMus in Folk and Traditional Music from Newcastle University (England) and has since shared the stage with traditional musical greats such as Joanie Madden, Kathryn Tickell, Billy McComiskey and Eileen O'Brien. Since emigrating to the USA in 2015, Dan has become heavily involved with leading local sessions, instructing fiddle workshops, and providing live music for the competitive Irish dance scene.
