

Basic Detail Report

Irish Fiddle M.A.D.

An Introduction to Irish Fiddle Music And Dance Styles

Wednesday, June 28, at 5:30pm.

DeCicé Hall at the Marian Center
1365 Northampton St. Holyoke MA
Registration: $10 suggested donation at the door.

Join the Lower Valley Irish Slow Session and our special guests Dan Foster and Courtney Jay TCRG as they introduce various styles of Irish traditional music and dance, providing a chance to "get your feet wet" by teaching them to you as well! Solo and group dance styles will be covered. Please wear comfortable shoes and clothing. This is primarily a dance workshop—no music will be taught, only shared.

Space is limited, so please pre-register by sending your name and number of guests to: LVBISession@yahoo.com www.lvbeginneririshsession.wordpress.com/workshops
special thanks to the CT Cultural Heritage Arts Program

Dan Foster is a specialist performer and tutor of Irish and Scottish fiddle music, who honed his playing style under master musicians in Ireland before emigrating to New England from his home in the British Isles.

Courtney Jay TCRG is a champion Irish step-dancer who established her own Irish dance academy "Scoil Rince Luimni" in 2014 after studying under dancing masters in the Munster region.

DeCicé Hall is a ministry of the US Province of the Daughters of the Heart of Mary DeCicé Hall features Keurig hot beverages; media center; on-site parking hospitality kitchen; comfortable seating. DeCicé Hall is fully HP accessible. Website: www.decicehall.org Voicemail: 413-539-5924 Email: decice.hall@gmail.com DHM website: www.dhm.org

Title Flyer: Irish Fiddle and Dance Presentation, 2017

Date 2017

Primary Maker Dan Foster

Medium Paper

Description Year 19 Southern New England Traditional Arts Apprenticeship

Program ephemera relating to the Year 19 team in Irish fiddle. The event was a

Basic Detail Report

required public presentation of the apprenticeship with Dan Foster teaching

Mark Bodah. The event also featured dancer Courtney Jay. Flyer, for Irish Fiddle

M.A.D., June 28, 2017.