 Basic Detail Report

Connecticut River Powwow Society Inc. presents

A

and Aztec's

THE 7TH ANNUAL STRAWBERRY MOON POWWOW

FEATURING INDIAN ARTISTS, FOOD BOOTHS & CRAFT VENDORS

MASTER OF CEREMONIES - GREY WOLF HEAD MALE & FEMALE DANCERS - MELVIN COOMES & CAROL LANG HOST DRUM - HARD ROCK SINGERS »» GUEST DRUM - YOUNG ELK SINGERS

«« SPECIAL PRESENTATIONS »»

RAINBOW COUGAR - STORYTELLING  MARTY GOODBEAR - HOOP DANCER JULIE COLLIER - BIRDS OF PREY »» DANCING WIND - FASHION SHOW LYENT RUSSELL, SOCIETY HISTORIAN - ON-GOING LECTURES & INFORMATION CHILDREN'S GAMES - HAWK THROWING DEMONSTRATION

«« SATURDAY & SUNDAY ACTIVITY SCHEDULE »»

11:00 AM	Gate & Booths Open
11:30 AM	Fashion Show	Stage
12 Noon	Grand Entry	Arena
1:00 PM	Story Telling	Stage
1:30 PM	Hoop Dancer	Arena
2:00 PM	Birds of Prey	Stage
3:00 PM	Tlalcopan Dancers	Arena
3:30 PM	Storytelling	Stage
4:00 PM	Grand Entry	Arena
5:00 PM	Hoop Dancer	Arena
5:30 PM	Hawk Throwing	Corral
6:00 PM	Tlalcopan Dancers	Arena
7:00 PM	Closing Ceremony	Arena

1) 1) 1) 1) 1) 1)

POWWOW ETIQUETTE

For many first-time visitors to an Indian Powwow, the activities and events may seem foreign and confusing. What is appropriate behavior? The answer is simple. First, just listen to the master of ceremonies. He's the man In charge! Second, be courteous and considerate to all, just as you would be if you were invited to the home of a friend or relative for a big outdoor party.

And finally, you may find that many Powwow events don't start at precisely the time they were scheduled. Well, the Powwow is operating on "Indian Time." In Indian cultures, events simply begin when they begin and end when they end! So, sit back, relax and enjoy the show!

ON-GOING EVENTS: DANCING, DRUMMING, CRAFT DEMONSTRATIONS & EDUCATIONAL EXHIBITS

A Special Thanks to the Town of Somers and all the Volunteers that make this event possible!

Title Flyer: 7th Annual Strawberry Moon Powwow

Date 1991 June

Primary Maker Connecticut River Powwow Society

Medium Paper

Description Flyer for the 7th Annual Strawberry Moon Powwow sponsored by the Connecticut River Powwow Society.