Dear Friends,

As you may already know, the Ehden Lebanese American Club is a social, cultural, and charitable organization that promotes our Lebanese Heritage in the Greater Waterbury area. We hope that you can join us at the festival. The Ehden Lebanese American Club is a non-profit, charitable organization dedicated to promoting the Lebanese culture and educating the community about our heritage.

The generosity of the community, through our program book, has been essential in keeping our events a success. Revenues from our ad book are used to fund our many charitable donations including St. Jude's Children Hospital and other local organizations in addition to our scholarship fund. We invite you to place an ad in our annual program book for our 47th annual Lebanese Heritage Festival, 'Mahrajan' to be held August 12 & 13, 2006 at our club grounds. Our festival attracts over a thousand people from the Connecticut region and beyond. The program book is always distributed to all those in attendance.

This year all full page ads will be published on the club's web site (www.ehden.org) as supporters of the club. This "on-line ad book" will be available on the club web site for one year and categorized by business or individuals to promote your company or cause. We are highlighting our major supporters by using this 21st century form of advertising to say "Thank You."

Please submit your enclosed ad form no later than July 21st for placement. Please enclose your tax-deductible donation to insure placement of your ad in our program book.
