

Basic Detail Report

INTERNATIONAL SPRING FESTIVAL

Sunday, April 9, 1995, from 1 to 4 PM

The Connecticut Historical Society
corner of Asylum Avenue and Elizabeth Street, Hartford

This popular event celebrates the significant contributions of different ethnic groups to Connecticut's history and heritage. International taste treats, colorful costumes, exciting displays, demonstrations and lively dance performances associated with spring will be presented by representatives of Connecticut's diverse cultural communities. Specialty foods, craft items, cookbooks, language and music tapes and various souvenirs will be available for purchase from several of the groups.

The schedule of performances, including dancers and musicians in traditional costumes is as follows:

2:00 PM RICARDO MORAGA

South and Latin American, Mexican and Puerto Rican music

2:30 PM GWIAZDECZKI

Polish Folklore children's dance group

3:00 PM BRUCE HEDMAN

Scottish Highland Bagpipe and Highland dancers

3:30 PM RANCHO FOLCLORICO do CLUBE
PORTUGUES de HARTFORD

Portuguese Folklore dance group

Admission is $3 for adults, $2 for adult CHS members and senior non-members, $1 for children and senior CHS members, and free to CHS members under 12. Please call 236-5621 for reservations and information.

Title Flyer: International Spring Festival

Date 1995

Medium Paper

Description Flyer for the International Spring Festival, 1995.