

Basic Detail Report

Title Tibetan Community Event at Torrington Historical Society

Date ca 1997

Primary Maker Kalsang Jorden

Medium negatives

Description 2015.196.243.2-.19: Images from black and white negatives showing a Tibetan gathering at the Torrington Historical Society (THS) to celebrate a new Torrington history exhibit that included works by local Tibetan artists Kalsang Jorden and Tsering Yangzom. (.2-.3) Artist Kalsang Jorden (left) and THS Director Mark McEachern (right) at the event at Torrington Historical Society (.4) Artist Tsering Yangzom on the right and Nyima Dorjee on the left, at the event at Torrington Historical Society (.5) Kunchok, the wife of community member Jyurme, holding their son at the event at Torrington Historical Society (.6-.12) Several people seated on the floor playing Sho, a Tibetan game with dice and cowrie shells at the event at Torrington Historical Society. 2015.196.243.8 shows

Basic Detail Report

Thapkey Tsering, president of the Tibetan Association of Connecticut. (.13)

Thapkey Tsering, president of the Tibetan Association of Connecticut, at the food table. (.14) Kunchok and Jyurme's son in baby carrier at event at Torrington Historical Society (.15) Kunchok and Jyurme's son, with Kunchok and Tsering Yangzom (right) at event at Torrington Historical Society (.16-.18)

Several people seated on the floor playing Sho, a Tibetan game with dice and cowrie shells at the event at Torrington Historical Society. (.19) Artists Tsering

Yangzom and Damdul with other community members at the event at

Torrington Historical Society