

Basic Detail Report

Title Aid to Artisans Event

Date November 1999

Primary Maker Tsultim Lama

Medium positive color film slides

Description 2015.196.403.1: Image of two Tibetan artists attending the Aids to Artisans event. Weaver Tsultim Lama (left) and weaver Tsering Yangzom (right) are standing in front of artwork made by Connecticut Tibetan artists.

2015.196.403.2: Image of two Tibetan artists attending the Aids to Artisans event, woodcarver Ngawang Choedar (left) and painter Kalsang Jorden (right).

These art works are in the CHS collection. 2015.196.403.3: Image of woven Tibetan textiles: tablet-woven belts made by Tsering Yangzom (left and center) and an embroidered bag made by Damdul from wool cloth woven by Tsering Yangzom (right). Some of these art works are in the CHS collection.

2015.196.403.4: Image of a seat cover woven by Tsultim Lama. 2015.196.403.5-.6:

Basic Detail Report

Images of Lao artist Manola Sidara discussing her folded paper ornaments called pah khuane. 2015.196.403.7-.8: Images of pah khuane made by Manola Sidara.

2015.196.403.9-.10: Images of Hmong embroidery in cross stitch made by Yee and Vang Xiong.