

Basic Detail Report

Reference photo only

Title Churchill House

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Painting; oil on wood in frame

Description Painting of the Churchill House in Newington, Connecticut. The house is seen from the front and has fallen into a state of disrepair, with a large hole in the roof to the left of the chimney and the side of the house on the left fading into the background. There is a fence on the right, and trees are just visible in the background.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 16 3/4 × 22 3/4in. (42.5 × 57.8 cm)