display consists of a pegboard wall displaying bridles and reins as the background behind a television on a table or shelf. At the far right a mock horse head is displaying a bridle. (.81) Black and white photograph of a display of Smith-Worthington products in the interior retail store for the Smith-Worthington Saddlery Company. The visible portion of the display consists of an English style saddle on a saddle stand with boots to the left and a cathode ray tube style television to the right. A pegboard wall behind the saddle and television displays reins and bridles. At the far-right a mock horse head is displaying a bridle, a lamp obscures much of the far-left hand side of the photograph. (.82) Black and white photograph of patrons in the interior retail store for the Smith-Worthington Saddlery Company. Three patrons are visible, two women and a man. In the foreground, a woman faces a wall display, she is wearing dark slacks and white or light-colored white sleeve shirt with light or white colored strappy sandals and shoulder bag in a similar color. In the background, to the left stands a woman facing away from the camera at the goods displayed, she wears a dark calf-length skirt and a striped short-sleeve top with dark heeled sandals and a purse. A man stands to her right, only his face and arm are visible.
