

Basic Detail Report

Title Sewing Circle Project Exhibit and Marketplace, 2008

Date 2008 August 23

Primary Maker Nilofer Haider

Medium born digital photography

Description Photographs of artists and visitors at the exhibit and marketplace showcasing the Sewing Circle Project held at the Institute for Community

Research in Hartford on August 23, 2008. (.4) Image of Sewing Circle participants. Pictured left to right are project advisor Nilofer Haider; Bosnian weaver Fatima Vejzovic holding a rug she wove; and Assyrian lacemaker

Florence Betgeorge and her husband, George. (.5-.9) Images of a Bosnian carpet being woven on the loom by Fatima Vejzovic at the event. (.10) Image of artists at the event reception. Pictured left to right are Somali basketmaker Fatuma

Ahmed, her daughter Nurta Adan, and a Liberian woman who modeled Liberian clothes made by artist Kannah Zealey. (.11) Image of Bosnian knitted socks and

Basic Detail Report

weavings on display at the event marketplace. (12-.14) Images of Liberian tailor Kannah Zealey standing next to the red dress he designed and made, which was exhibited at the event. (.15-.16) Images of Kannah Zealey and other Liberians displaying and selling clothing they made with visitors observing their work. (.17)

Image of Assyrian lacemaker Florence Betgeorge with her family.