Medium Photography; color slide on plastic in cardboard mount

Description Color mounted slides of a military camp and the Incheon

Replacement Depot in South Korea in 1953 during the Korean War. (.100) A man in a military uniform and a hat is standing next to the front steps of a building.

His left hand is rested inside his pant pocket. His right hand is holding a pair of sunglasses and probably a camera. (.101) Back view of soldiers in uniform walking around the front facade of the Incheon Replacement Depot building. A vehicle is parked near the entrance. Trees and bushes sit in front of the building.

(.102) Soldiers in uniform walking around the front facade of the Incheon Replacement Depot building. One man in the middle of the image is smiling at the camera with his hands in his pockets. Behind him is a flagpole that probably has the United States flag at the top of it. Hills with bare trees are in the background. (.103) Back view of soldiers in uniform walking around front facade of the Incheon Replacement Depot building. A vehicle is parked near the entrance of the building. Trees and bushes sit in front of the building. (.104) Five men in uniform posing in front of a tent in a military camp. One man is crouched down in front of the group. The second man to the left has a camera strapped from his neck. (.105) Soldiers talking with a woman in a military camp. The soldiers are in uniform, winter coats, and steel helmets. The woman is wearing a winter coat, a red striped scarf, and earmuffs. An American Red Cross flag hangs from the side of a vehicle. Camp buildings and mountains are in the background. (.106) A landscape view of soldiers in a military camp. The soldiers are probably gathered around a fire as smoke is seen rising in front of the high-rise hills. (.107)
