

Basic Detail Report

Title Views of Japan and Military Camp, 1952-1953

Date 1952-1953

Primary Maker Edward J. Rogalski

Medium Photography; color slide on plastic in cardboard mount

Description Color mounted slides of various scenes in Japan and a military camp during the Korean War, 1952-1953. (.202) View of a people on a busy public street in Japan. A male traffic guard in the front of the image with a whistle in his mouth is pointing both arms to his left. The guard is wearing a work uniform with a hat, white gloves, and glasses. Attached to each vendor and/or building are signs in Japanese. (.203-.204) A small, decorated Christmas tree stands in a military camp in front of tents. Ornaments on the tree include bells, stars, tinsel, and wreaths. High-rise hills are seen in the background. (.205) A view of people on the grass of a public park. Green trees are seen in the background. (.206) Landscape view of a city taken from a hill. Behind the tall bare tree are buildings and mountains. (.207) A double exposed image where two images are together.

Basic Detail Report

The first image is a woman posing while holding a coffee mug. She is wearing a brown leather jacket with gems and fringes on the shoulders and waist, a light blue shirt, dark colored pants, and a necklace. The second image is the same women posing with a man in a military uniform in front of camp tents. The woman is posing by hugging the man with her left arm pulling him closer. (.208)

People on a busy public street in Japan. The camera is angled up towards the sky where overhead powerlines and green leaf trees are seen.