

Basic Detail Report

Title Military Camp, 1952-1953

Date 1952-1953

Primary Maker Edward J. Rogalski

Medium Photography

Description A negative strip with images of a military camp during the Korean War in 1952-1953. (.1) A view of a military truck carrying supplies in a military camp. The trailer cart for the truck and other camp supplies sits in front of a tent on the left side of the image. A field is in the background in front of high-rise hills. (.2-.3) Soldiers in uniform and steel helmets in a military camp. Within the camp are military vehicles, camp supplies, and tents. A field is in the background in front of high-rise hills. (.4) Edward Rogalski with his military company, all in uniform and steel helmets, posed in front of a trailer cart. Rogalski is standing in the second row, first on the right. Two men behind him are posing with one leg resting on the trailer. (.5) Edward Rogalski with his military company, all in uniform and steel helmets, posed in front of a vehicle. The vehicle is carrying camp supplies. Rogalski is kneeling in the front row, first on the left. A flagpole stands behind the vehicle.