

Basic Detail Report

Title Interview with Jennie Martucci

Date 2008 January 29

Primary Maker Jennie Martucci

Medium digitized audio cassette tape

Description Audio cassette tape of an interview with Jennie Martucci. Robert Giovino and Alberta Martucci, Jennie's nephew and niece, were also present at the interview. They were interviewed on January 29, 2008 by Bruce M. Stave and Sondra Astor Stave at Jennie Martucci's home in West Hartford, Connecticut. Jennie was born on October 14, 1911 in Hartford, Connecticut. She grew up on Front Street. She attended the Brown School on Talcott Street and did not attend high school. In 1925, she started working at G. Fox at the age of 14, in the Housewares Department. She worked at G. Fox for 60 years and was a member of the Moses Fox Club. She describes her memories of Beatrice Fox Auerbach and the store customers. She shares her memories of Hartford. Her sister worked in the Hoisery Department, and some of her nieces and nephews also worked at G. Fox. She describes the dress code and the cafeteria. Robert describes his memories of being a G. Fox customer. He was a police officer in West Hartford. Alberta describes her memories of her family members working at G. Fox. She worked in the Jewelry Department from 1955-1956 when she was in high school.

Dimensions Duration: 56 Minutes, 11 Seconds